How can I learn about all the capabilities of my phone's camera module?

You can find a dedicated app in our Telegram chat by using the request #camera2info. This app will provide you with comprehensive information about your camera module. Additionally, you can use requests #camera2info2/3/4 to access different versions if the main version of the app does not work correctly on your phone.